A SPECIAL COURSE IN PATENT LAW AND PATENT LAW PRACTICE,
Corducted by Professors Benjamin Butterworth and Melville Church.

The services of the Hon, Benjamin Butterworth, a patent lawyer of national prominence and formerly Commissioner of Patents, Lave been secured for a series of lectures on the patent statutes and the general principles of patent law as administered in the Federal Courts and in the United States Patent Office; and of Melville Church, Esq., a member of the Washington Bar, and a specialist in patent law, for giving practical instruction in respect to the great unwritten law of practice in patent causes.

This course in practice will corer a period of eight months, with two lectures or sessions of the Moot Court each week.

A degree of Bachelor of Patent Laws will be conferred upon those who are able to pass a satisfactory examination of the close of the term.

Only graduates in law or members of the bar will be eligible to this degree.

Tuttion for the course, $50.

As the size of the class must necessarily be limited in order that the course—especially the Moot Court practice—may be carried on effectively, applications for admission should be promptly made on or before October 1, 1805.

The thirty-first annual session of the School of Law opens on Thursday, October 3, at 6 o'clock p.m., when introductory lecture will be delivered by President Waltman, and announcements made for the cresuling term.
